ABSTRACT PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS

Possible Conflict of Interest:

In accordance with the essentials and standards set forth by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, as well as guidelines by the Food and Drug Administration and endorsed by the American Medical Association, note must be made of abstracts whose authors may have a conflict of interest. This includes, but is not limited to, any significant financial interest in a company, product or procedure that is mentioned in an abstract or presentation to be given at the meeting. If the author(s) or presenter feels that such conflict or interest exists, possible or actual, the box provided on the abstract form should be checked. A positive notation in this box will not determine whether or not an abstract is accepted for presentation at the meeting.

1. Capitalize entire title. Underline or bold name of author making presentation. Single-space all typing (no space between title and body or between paragraphs). Indent paragraphs three spaces. Do not indent title. Any special symbols that are not on your typewriter or word processor must be drawn by hand in BLACK ink.
2. Names of institutional affiliations, city and state should be listed. Do not include street address, zip code, or grant support
3. If no author is an ACN member, type "Introduced by (sponsoring member)." Abstract page should include sponsor's name/signature.
4. Organize the body of the abstract as follows:
  - A statement of the objectives of the study (preferably one sentence).
  - A statement of the methods used.
  - A summary of the results in sufficient detail to support the conclusions.
  - Conclusions.
  - Do not use subtitles, e.g., Methods, Results, etc.
5. PRACTICE typing the abstract in a 4.15 x 5.8 inch rectangle before using this form. To keep your abstract legible, do not use type that is too small (12 point Times Roman is recommended) or type that simulates script. Clean type before using. Use a carbon ribbon if possible; otherwise use a new, good-quality black ribbon. The same applies to the ribbon in printers. DO NOT ERASE or paste copies of the abstract to the form. Do not type on or outside the lines. Use uniform spacing between lines.
6. Standard abbreviations are acceptable and may be used without definition. Non-standard abbreviations must be defined in parentheses after the full word the first time they appear in the body of the abstract.

Excessive use of non-standard abbreviations may jeopardize evaluation of abstracts for scientific merit. Use numerals to indicate numbers except when beginning sentences.
7. Nonproprietary (genetic) names, written in small letters, are required the first time a drug is mentioned. Proprietary name are always capitalized, e.g., acetazolamide (Diamox).
8. Send one original copy (use abstract form) and five photocopies of abstracts and report to the American College of Nutrition 300 South Duncan Avenue, Suite 225 Clearwater, FL 33755, by first class mail to arrive no later than May 20, 2005 for the New Investigator Award competition.
9. Each abstract must be signed by an ACN member, either as author or sponsor, to indicate that the member knows the individual submitting the abstract and agrees that the research merits reporting.

EXAMPLE:

THE EFFECTS OF DIET AND EXERCISE ON PLASMA LIPIDS IN YOUNG WOMEN ATHLETES.

Kolar M., Yeater R., Ullrich I. Department of Medicine and Human Performance Laboratory, West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV.

The relative importance of diet and exercise to plasma lipids in young female athletes has not been established. Therefore, we studied the diets of women (mean age 21 years) who participated in strength-dependent sports .....

4.15 inches Wide x 5.8 inches High

For laser printers, suggested margins (every printer is slightly different) to complete the form on the reverse are: left, 4.1"; right, 0.35"; top, 4.1"; bottom, 1.125"
